Ambassador Bryce and Wife Sail for Panama.

WILL VISIT BUENOS AYRES

Edward J. Donnelly, son of Public Printer, is married to Miss Elizabeth Louise Dahill, of Hartford, Conn., and will reside in Brooklyn after honeymoon.

The British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce sailed yesterday for Panama. They will go from there to Peru, Chile, and the Straits of Magellan, and from Buenos Ayres they will sail for England, not returning to the embassy here until late in November.

The newly appointed chargé d'affaires of Persia, Mirza Ali Kuli Kahn, who presented his credentials yesterday to the Assistant Secretary of State, Mr. Wilson, is no stranger to Washington society. He has lived here for some years, and his wife, who was formerly Miss Florence Breen, of Boston, has for the last two seasons acted as hostess of the Persian Legation in the absence of women members of the family of the Minister, Gen. Morteza, Kahn.

Mr. Edward J. Donnelly, of Brooklyn, N. Y., son of Mr. Samuel B. Donnelly, of this city, United States Public Printer, was married yesterday to Miss Elizabeth Louise Dahill, daughter of Mr. John J. Dahill, of the Albany House, Hartford, Conn. The ceremony was performed in St. Bridget's Church, in Moodus, Conn., by the Rev. William H. Rogers, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, of Hartford. A wedding breakfast followed at the Riverside Inn, near the summer home of the bride's parents, "Woodlawn," where a large reception was held later in the afternoon. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss May Dahill, and the best man was Mr. George Draper, of New York. The future home of the bride and bridegroom will be Brooklyn, N. Y.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dowell Davis for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rena Preston, to Mr. Paul Noble Peck, on Wednesday evening, September 7, at 8 o'clock, in their home, 212 First street. The bride and bridegroom will be at home after October 1 at 1718 Twenty-second street.

Invitations have been received here from Mr. and Mrs. Perry J. Freeman, of Richmond, Ind., for the marriage of their daughter, Hazel Jane Freeman, to Mr. William Barton Kerkham, on Wednesday evening, September 14, at 6:30 o'clock, in their home. The bride and bridegroom will be at home after November 1 at the Russell, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carter have returned from a short wedding trip through Maryland. The trip as originally planned was to Atlantic City, but on account of business engagements Mr. Carter was obliged to return to this city. They will leave to-day for a trip to Atlantic City by motor.

A very pretty rainbow wedding, which took place yesterday morning at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, at 9 o'clock, was that of Miss Alice E. Rousseau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Avila Rousseau, and Joseph K. Hayden. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ignatius Fealy, pastor of the church, and a large gathering of relatives and friends was present. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms and clusters of white roses and carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was gown in a handsome white satin dress, with a long tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bride roses. Her sister, Miss Helen Rousseau, acted as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Graham, Miss Loraine Simms, Miss Marie Hayden, and Miss Grace Meier. They were dainty frocks of soft pink, green, and yellow silk trimmed in lace. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms and clusters of white roses and carnations. MAJ. HENRY JERVIS, in addition to his other duties, will temporarily relieve Capt. HARLEY B. FERGUSON of the duties now in his charge pertaining to the Montgomery engineer district, together with the funds, property, and records connected therewith. Capt. FERGUSON, upon being thus relieved, will proceed at the earliest practicable date to Havana, Cuba, and take station at that place for duty pertaining to the raising or removing of the wreck of the United States battleship Maine from the harbor of Havana.

Capt. ALFRED HASBROCK, Coast Artillery Corps, is relieved from assignment to the Sixth-ninth Company, Coast Artillery Corps, and is placed on the unassigned list. He will report in person to the commanding officer of the Coast Artillery School, Fort Monroe, Va., for the purpose of taking the advanced course at that school.

NATIONAL BANKS INCREASE.

Twenty Authorized and Twelve Begin Business in August.

Thirty-four applications to organize national banks were received by Comptroller Murray in August. Of the applications pending, twenty were approved and four rejected. In the same month twelve banks, with total capital of $3,990,000 were authorized to begin business, of which number three, with capital of $50,000, had individual capital of less than $50,000, and nine with capital of $3,940,000, individual capital of $50,000 or over.

The total number of national banks was 9,834, of which 2,000 have discontinued business, leaving in existence 7,834 banks, with authorized capital of $1,021,667,135, and circulation outstanding, secured by bonds, $67,132,323.

The total amount of the national bank circulation outstanding is $717,821,061, of which $3,185,728 is covered by lawful money of a like amount deposited with the Treasurer of the United States on account of liquidating and insolvent national banks and associations which have reduced their circulation.

NEW YORK CITY GAINS

Census Gives Metropolis Population of 4,766,333.

INCREASE IS 38.7 PER CENT

Borough of Bronx More Than Doubles Number of Inhabitants in Last Ten Years, While Other Count Swells Figures in Other Districts. London Conceded 7,000,000.

According to the returns of the thirtieth census, the population of the city of New York, N. Y., is 4,766,333, as compared with 3,437,222 in 1900, and 2,567,414 in 1890.

The increase from 1890 to 1910, therefore, is 1,198,921, or 38.7 per cent, as compared with an increase for the preceding decade of 839,772, or 32.7 per cent.

Following are the figures given out by the Census Bureau:

	1910.	1900.	1890.
New York City	4,766,333	3,437,222	2,567,414
Manhattan borough	2,310,512	1,800,023	1,441,231
Brooklyn borough	1,534,331	1,106,582	838,547
Richmond borough	85,000	67,021	51,865
Queens borough	284,941	152,390	87,639

Commenting on these figures, Director Durand says:

"The population of Manhattan Borough has increased from 1900 to 1910, 451,489, or 25.0 per cent, as compared with an increase for the preceding decade, of 409,877, or 22.7 per cent, that of the borough of the Bronx has increased from 1890 to 1910, 290,473, or 114.3 per cent, as compared with an increase from 1890 to 1900, of 111,559, or 12.5 per cent.

Brooklyn Borough Increases.

The increase for Brooklyn Borough from 1900 to 1910 is 427,749, or 40.1 per cent, as compared with an increase for the preceding decade, of 228,055, or 20.1 per cent. Richmond Borough has increased during the last decade 18,948, or 28.3 per cent, as compared with an increase from 1890 to 1900, of 15,223, or 29.7 per cent, and the borough of Queens has increased from 1900 to 1910, 124,551, or 35.6 per cent, as compared with an increase for the preceding decade, of 65,949, or 75.8 per cent.

In 1900, New York City had the largest population of any city in the United States, it being 3,437,222. This was an increase of 1,521,011 over 1900, when the population was 1,916,211, or a gain of 126 per cent. The population of New York City in 1890 was 2,567,414.

The population of Chicago in 1900 was 1,763,757; Philadelphia, 1,293,487; St. Louis, 675,229; St. Petersburg, 190,740; Baltimore, 578,357. These were the only six cities in the United States that had a population over 500,000.

In 1900, when the first census was taken, New York City had a population of 2,567,414, made up of the following boroughs: Manhattan Borough, 1,441,231; Bronx Borough, 1,106,582; Brooklyn Borough, 838,547; Richmond Borough, 51,865; Queens Borough, 87,639.

Estimate for London.

According to figures at the Census Bureau, the population of Greater London in 1911 was 5,335,372, or 35.6 per cent, as compared with 3,925,749 in 1901.

Paris, in 1905, had a population of 2,763,338; St. Petersburg, 1,905,740; Berlin, 1,905,240; Rome, 1,901,000; official count, 1,196,969.

The population of the city of Yonkers, N. Y., is 79,802, as compared with 47,591 in 1900, and 32,033 in 1890. The increase from 1900 to 1910, therefore, is 31,872, or 66.5 per cent. The population of the city of Elmira, N. Y., is 37,176, as compared with 25,672 in 1900, and 30,593 in 1890. The increase from 1900 to 1910 is 11,504, or 44.8 per cent.

Peking, China, at one time supposed to be one of the largest capital cities in the world, with a population of more than a million, according to the records in the Census Bureau, now has a population estimated to be somewhere in the neighborhood of 700,000.
